

SEATTLE SCAVENGER HUNT

1. Pike Place Market: Find a bouquet of flowers, a dozen doughnuts, or Rachel the pig!
2. Georgetown neighborhood: Find the giant hat and boots in Oxbow Park.
3. The Puget Sound: Lincoln Park, Golden Gardens, and Alki Beach are all good spots to find our most important waterway!
4. Central Library: Enjoy a few books, then travel to the 10th floor for a view of Elliott Bay.
5. Planes: Spot an air, sea, or float plane. Hint--Check Lake Union or the Museum of Flight!
6. The Ballard Locks: Find salmon working their way through the ladder or boats moving from fresh to salt water.
7. Dinosaurs! Search for these prehistoric creatures in the Pacific Science Center, or go take a look at the first dinosaur fossil found in Washington State in the University District's Burke Museum.
8. Sports Stadiums: Head south of downtown to find where the Mariners, Seahawks, and Sounders play!
9. River Otters: Say hello to Ziggy, Duncan & Valkyrie, the Woodland Park Zoo's resident synchronized swimmers in the Northern Trail section.
10. Fremont Troll: Explore the Fremont neighborhood making sure to stop and see the mythical and mysterious creature who lives under the Aurora Bridge.
11. Eagle Sculpture: Wander around the Olympic Sculpture Park and enjoy the larger than life masterpieces. You might stop for a picnic next to Alexander Calder's giant eagle!
12. Fish: See how many different types of fish you can find at the Seattle Aquarium! Don't forget to say hi to the scuba diver in the Windows on Washington Waters exhibit.